FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MICHAEL THE WEEK CALLED "HOLY"

Today we begin the most solemn weeks of the Liturgical Year. We call it "holy" because we celebrate the central mystery of our faith – the dying and rising of Jesus. I invite you to participate as fully as your schedule allows in the various celebrations throughout the week.

On Holy Thursday, we celebrate the institution of the Eucharist and the priesthood. Like the apostles, we are gathered in the Upper Room. We see Jesus with great humility wash the feet of his disciples, a task reserved for a slave. He asks all of us to treat others in this kind of humility.

He celebrated the Last Supper on the night before he died giving himself to us under the form of bread and wine. Down through the centuries, every time we celebrate Mass, whether in a great basilica or a simple church, we do it in memory of Him. He is present with us, guiding and nourishing us, and becoming present to us under the form of bread and wine. In doing so, Jesus is giving us the greatest gift of all: the gift of himself, the living Gift!

Good Friday is the only day of the year when Mass is not celebrated. It seems as though a hush has fallen on the world as we mourn the death of Jesus. We reflect on His suffering love, and realize how important we are in His eyes, that he was willing to undergo all this suffering for us. Some time back when people saw the movie, The Passion of the Christ, many gathered afterwards to talk about it because of its intensity. I remember one person saying: "And to think that He went through all that suffering for us!" Please join us on Friday at noon as we reflect on the Last Words of Christ, at 3:00 for the Commemoration of the Lord's Passion and later at 7:00 for the Stations of the Cross, weather permitting, outside by the Convent.

The Easter Vigil on Saturday night is a time when all the stops are pulled out, as it were, and with fire, lighting of candles, music and oils we celebrate the rising of Jesus from the dead. Our hymns reflect our joy. "Jesus Christ is Risen Today, Alleluia". That is why we call this week "holy". The question remains: how can you and I make it a holy week? A few suggestions:

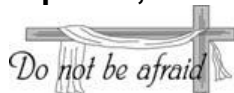

Don't let it be just another week. Make it special as a family. Light a candle on your table at home as you sit down for supper and thank the Lord for his love and kindness. Participate as much as you can in the Holy Week celebrations. Set the time aside. Make it a priority for the whole family to pray daily. Meditate on the gift of Jesus to each of us. In a true sense you will be responding to the tremendous love shown to us by God in the person of his Son, Jesus.

May this week, indeed, be a holy week for all of us.

Fr. Michael

PASTOR NOTES

Social Disgrace

A week ago we heard the news of the rape of a 14 year old in Chicago that was filmed live on Facebook. I couldn't agree more with Chief Eddie Robinson of Chicago when he said, "What kind of people would view such a thing and not call 911?" Are we that desensitized to criminal activity that we would allow the violent, depraved criminal attack on someone? Do we think that after years of violent news stories, violent video games, pornography, violent and sexual films that we now find it acceptable to view evil and not be bothered and disturbed? When we see or hear something like this, our conscience should tell us it's wrong, evil, depraved, and harmful to someone else.

Another example, is when last Sunday a hit and run took place and it resulted in the death of two people in North Bergen. The driver drove off but was luckily caught. One of those two people I fortunately knew since 1983. When hearing of his death, I was horrified. Apparently, not the alleged driver of the vehicle that did the vehicular homicide. Didn't he feel remorse or know his action was wrong? Again, we take death as something not serious.

We must address this social ill now because the soul is in danger of being lost! Remember the Good Samaritan that helped the injured man on the street? We need to be moved with the same pity. We need to remove violent video games, social media that promotes this destructive garbage, pornography, and things that take us away from the things God offers to us. God gives us life, each other, and the goodness of life. Let us celebrate the gift of God's goodness.

Divine Mercy Sunday – April 23, 2017

We will be celebrating Divine Mercy on Sunday, April 23 beginning at 1:30 PM. As part of the day's spiritual opportunities, the faithful will have the opportunity to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, pray the Rosary, and pray before the Blessed Sacrament. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy will begin at 3:00 PM and the service will close with Benediction. The faithful are advised to please pick up a flyer at all exits of the church to start the Novena on Good Friday.

Jesus said to St. Faustina Kowalska, "I have opened my heart as a living fountain of mercy. Let all souls draw life from it. Let them approach this sea of mercy with trust. (1520) On the cross, the fountain of my mercy was opened wide by the lance for all souls – no one have I excluded!" (1182)

"Mary's hymn of praise was dedicated to the mercy of God which extends from "generation to generation" (Lk 1:50). We, too, were included in those prophetic words of the Virgin Mary. This will be a source of comfort and strength to us as we experience the fruits of divine mercy." Words of Pope Francis #24 Misericordiae Vultus

Congratulations to our Boy Scouts!

Bishop Arthur Serratelli presented religious medal awards to approximately 60 Boy and Girl Scouts from troops in Northern New Jersey Sunday, March 26, 2017 at St. Peter the Apostle Church in Parsippany. Four boys from Troop 159 of our parish received awards. Each award involves months of work and group discussions including meetings on weekends.

Jacob L. & Nicholas S. earned their Pope Pius XII, Pillars of Faith Award & religious Boy Scout knots. The Pope Pius XII program deals with different life choices (single, married, religious, ordained), occupations and ministries. It includes youth led discussions on current issues facing the church & society.

Timothy B. & David B. earned their Ad Altare Dei Award & religious boy scout knots. The purpose of the Ad Altare Dei (to the altar of God) program is to help Catholic Youth of the Roman Rite to develop a fully Christian way of life in the faith community
